

“His Mercy is Great”

In his vicarious death Christ atoned for us. Those deserving of God’s wrath in mercy are offered life.

I. WHEN _____.

The mercy of God is marvelous, but it loses its significance if you take away the righteous, retributive wrath of God against sin!

A. His wrath is always _____ & _____.

B. His wrath was _____ by _____.

1. What was the sin committed?

2. What was the justice administered?

II. WHEN _____.

A. God _____. (v. 10)

B. God _____. (vv. 11-13)

None of these choices were desirable, but one was preferable.
The king prefers to depend on God’s mercy than man’s wrath.

C. God _____. (vv. 14-25)

The mercy David hoped for was delivered by the merciful God.
